

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Intrepid Investigations Acquires Centric Investigations

Toronto, ON – June 4, 2025 – Intrepid is proud to announce the acquisition of Centric Investigations, a strategic step that furthers our growth and momentum in the industry.

Centric Investigations, founded in 2006 and led by Domenic Sturino, brings a legacy of trusted client relationships. Domenic himself brings over 35 years of industry expertise to our team.

Building on our strong foundation of experience, capacity, and national coverage, this acquisition expands our reach and strengthens our presence in key Canadian markets by welcoming Centric's valued clients into the Intrepid family.

We've built a coast-to-coast reputation for professionalism and reliability. With this integration, clients will benefit from our expanded resources, increased support, and a unified team dedicated to delivering confident, quality-assured results grounded in experience and mindful practices.

Keith D'Souza, President & CEO of Intrepid, states, "This marks an exciting chapter for Intrepid. The addition of Centric aligns perfectly with our vision of building a stronger Intrepid. We continue to grow with purpose, strengthen relationships, and deliver greater value to clients in Canada and abroad. To Centric's clients, welcome. This acquisition means more support, greater reach, and a stronger team working for you."
